

Into the blue

Don't say,
I've lost my mind,
'Cause then you'll be dimensioned in a trap.

Don't cry,
See all the lights,
Come with me to feel what I can see.
There's a fire inside of me, Burning me,
That forces me to jump.
Let me know if you're with me, Forget all they said,
And tell me what you feel.

Long time ago,
I had a dream where I was in this cliff, Staring at you,
Asking you to come.

I won't jump if you're not there... I won't jump if you're not there... I won't jump if you're not there... I won't jump if you're not there...

3, 2, 1, shock...
