

Our Pulse

We won't wait, Answers are inside us, Life is illusion,
But we are awake.
The peak is high,
The options are endless, But we're feeling ready, To make the right choice.
Heart is now complete, We feel the reason why.
Until the rest of our lives, Until the rest of our lives.
Escape from time,
It's getting into our minds, It's trying to tell us,
That we won't succeed.
We don't care,
We won't betray our lives, 'Cause we are the riders, Of body and soul.
Mind is now complete, The puzzle is now done.
That is our start...
They are crossing our direction, Wandering everywhere we go, Our pulse,
Will rescue us from that,
Never think of that again, So wrong.
We won't wait, Answers are inside us, Life is illusion,
But we are awake.
The peak is high,
The options are endless, But we're feeling ready, To make the right choice.
