

Super me

Mamma it's a big day, I won't eat breakfast, I feel so strong now, Duty just called me.

All those citizens,

I know they need me, 'Cause when I walked down, I saw sad faces.

Stop that laugh!

This does not concern you, What you say,

Reminds me of a sheep.

Is the wind blowing hard? Is the wind blowing hard? 'Cause I'll fly today.

I can't remember which day I thought, I was going to change the world.

All the creations in my mind, Are now becoming so real.

Stop this now,

Where's respect in what you're doing here? Stop!

Think big please,

Take a step forward and not over them. Stop!

'Cause there is no law,

That tells me what to be,

That tells me what's impossible, That writes my future down.

I'm Super Me! I'm Super Me! It's all inside me, It's all inside me.

Oh! There's a need to survive, Always hides what we need, In the end to keep on,

Come on, let's go.
