

Tainted bones

Change,
Throughout our lives, Along the days,
We cover all,
We taint our,
Bones,
They are inside, Strong and pure, Since we were born, But we must,
Hide,
To have a place, To be in the game, So we can live, Enough time.
I just want to fit in there,
“You are tainting your bones”, Seeking to be someone,
“Tell me please it’s not for them.”
It’s a need to survive,
“You can make the choice on time,” Stop telling these things,
“You’re the piece that they want.”
Bones,
They are inside, Strong and pure, Since we were born.
But we forget that, ‘cause we think what we sense, we are scared of the crowd, ‘cause they will bury our..
Bones,
They are inside, Strong and pure, Since we were born. But then we taint, Throughout our lives, Along the days,
We cover all,
We taint our,
Bones.
